OUR STORIES

The Josa woman knows what kind of world she wants to leave behind
A World that's...Greener, more responsible towards the Earth And one which considers the comfort and hygiene of every woman on those 5 days of the month.

HERE'S WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

India is witnessing a new change in the positive direction as female hygiene has become one of the most talked-about issues in the country. Education about menstrual hygiene is on the rise, yet only 12% of Indian women use sanitary napkins.

Josa, ECO FRIENDLY PADS

Most rural women in India still use cloth pads, sari rags, newspapers, leaves, mud and husk on their periods which is degradable if disposed but this option is not safe and hygienic and can lead to numerous health issues and menstrual diseases.
